

Clinical Medical Assistant Career Technical Training Area

Health Care Career Pathway Clinical Medical Assistant

The Job Corps Clinical Medical Assistant career training program takes 8 to 12 months to complete and allows students to train in one of the following specialty areas:

- Phlebotomy Technician
  - Patient identification
  - Specimen collection
  - Venipuncture procedures
  - Capillary sticks
  - Phlebotomy equipment including test tubes
  - Specimen transport and handling
  - Laboratory personnel and responsibilities
  - Analytical errors/complications
  - Related anatomy/physiology/terminology
- EKG Technician
  - EKG equipment
  - Cardiac cycle
  - Normal and abnormal EKGs
  - Performing EKGs
  - Lead placement
  - Holter monitoring
- Clinical Medical Assistant
  - Roles and responsibilities of the medical assistant
  - General knowledge of anatomy and physiology
  - Vital signs
  - Patient interaction and communication

- Assisting the physician during exams
- Law/ethics
- Emergency first aid
- Routine office responsibilities

Credentials:

All Job Corps training programs are aligned with industry credentials.

Eligibility requirements:

Before completing a Clinical Medical Assistant training program, students should:

- Have the basic math and reading skills necessary to perform the job.
- Complete the core curriculum and pass all written and performance tests.

*The Certified Clinical Medical Assistant exam also includes all of the subject areas for the Certified Phlebotomy Technician and Certified EKG Technician career pathways.

Average length of training:

8 to 12 months

The salary range for various careers as a Clinical Medical Assistant is:

$29,000 to $37,000/year

THE BENEFITS OF JOB CORPS

Hands-on training and internships • Housing, meals, and basic medical care • Earn while you learn: Biweekly living allowance • Administered by the U.S. Dept. of Labor

What is Job Corps?

- A residential career training program
- Your path to a career in a high-growth industry
- A place to earn your high school diploma or GED
- Career counseling and support after graduation

Career Technical Training programs vary at different Job Corps centers.

Administered by the U.S. Department of Labor, Job Corps is the nation's largest career technical training and education program for low-income students ages 16 through 24. Job Corps is a U.S. Department of Labor Equal Opportunity Employer Program. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities. TDD/TTY telephone number is (877) 889-5627.